

DOUGLAS DAILY BUDGET

Douglas Society

(International American)

Last Thursday was observed as ladies' day at the Country Club. Mrs. James Douglas, Mrs. Knowles and Mrs. E. W. Simonson presided at the tea table.

There were six tables of bridge at the Country Club Tuesday evening when the third tournament was started. Those participating were as follows: Miss Scott and Mrs. C. O. Thomas, Mrs. Callahan and Mrs. Ota Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Downs, Mrs. C. C. Barclay and Mrs. Anna Dyer, Mr. Ashby Packard and Mrs. H. A. Packard, Mr. J. P. Sexton and Mr. Fortin, Miss Walcott and Dr. Lawson Downs, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cass, Mr. C. O. Thomas and Mr. E. C. Robinson, Mr. C. C. Barclay and Mr. Carl Smith, Miss Dorothy Packard and Mr. T. M. Smith, and Mrs. E. W. Simonson and Mrs. Fletcher M. Dean, who substituted for Mr. Simonson. It is the intention of the committee to begin the playing each evening upon the arrival of the car at the club house and as there are only three rubbers being played it will not be necessary to play very late in the evening. The next play will be Monday, February 13th.

Mrs. E. G. Mustain of El Paso, who has many friends in Douglas, was the inspiration of one of the most beautiful card parties of the winter season, given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. W. Windham at her home in this city.

Vases of jonquills and narcissus were placed in effective positions like soft lights in an effective picture. Ferns and ivy lent their beauty to the scene, while the guests were beautifully roved.

Progressive whist was played, of which there were five tables. The first prize, a handsome large sapphire, was won by Miss Morley; in the awarding of the second prize, there was a general cut by Mrs. Mustain, Mrs. Reno, Mrs. Soule, Mrs. Finley, Mrs. Brunner, and Mrs. Adams. The prize, also a handsome sapphire, fell to the lot of Mrs. E. W. Adams. Mrs. Cowan and Mrs. Huxtable cut for the consolation prize, consisting of a beautiful water color picture, which was won by Mrs. Cowan. Punch was served during the afternoon, the hostess presiding at the punch bowl.

After the games a two-course luncheon was served. Including the guest of honor, Mrs. E. G. Mustain, and the hostess, Mrs. W. W. Windham, there were present Mesdames L. B. Carey, Tanterberry, E. W. Adams, Linn Palmer, E. J. Huxtable, W. H. Reno, W. E. Tester, L. H. Scott, Charles Brunner, A. W. Vandeman, C. C. Thompson, Pickard, James East, George Mason, Homer Kibbs, S. Finley, O. O. Hammill, Cowan, Miss Morley and Mrs. Roy Soule of Chicago and Mrs. Harvey Nell of Pittsburgh.

The Harmony club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. F. F. Roensch at her home on Tremble street. Next Friday Mrs. Dave Robson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Catharine Robson, will entertain the club.

Mrs. A. J. Hopkins of Chicago has arrived in Douglas to spend the remainder of the winter with her parents, Judge and Mrs. George W. Cass.

The Evening Bridge club were very pleasantly entertained this week by Mrs. C. H. Lund.

Last Monday afternoon about thirty-five ladies enjoyed the hospitality of the Elks club at their pleasant meal room on F avenue. A week from next Monday the ladies will again have charge of the room, and no effort will be spared by the ladies having charge of the affair to make ladies' day one of the most pleasant social events of the season.

Carpenter Stolen. Mesdames stole some brass candlesticks from the Merchants this morning and though pursued, escaped. They were traced, however, and Phil Hillman is on the case, confident of recovering the goods and capturing the thieves.

Go to Hachita. Troop 1 of the Third Cavalry, which has been stationed at Douglas for several days past, received orders to proceed to Hachita today.

Returns From El Paso. Walter Douglas returned to Bisbee this morning from El Paso, where he had been with his father, Dr. James Douglas, who left yesterday for Dawson, N. M., expecting to go from there to New York.

Bid For Supplies. Most of the local grocery houses had representatives at the county hospital today to present bids for supplies for the hospital and poor farm. The board of supervisors were in session there for the purpose of entertaining such bids preliminary to the awarding of contracts.

Join Antlered Herd. Three new lawns donated the horns last night took the obligations and now participate in the enjoyment of the privileges of Elkdom. The three new members of the local herd of Elks who passed over the rocky hills last night were Col. A. D. Nazzari, City Engineer Norton and Francis Ames.

More Ladies' Days. So successful have been the two ladies' days since the opening of the Elks' club house that it has been decided to hold two ladies' days each month, the first and third Monday afternoons, instead of the first Monday only. Plans are afoot to make the subsequent afternoons more enjoyable than those heretofore held.

Going to Chicago. M. F. Dicus will leave tonight for Chicago, where he goes to purchase required machinery and material for the filling of his contract for the installation of the water system for the city. He expects to be away from home for two weeks. He may purchase a trench cutting machine, similar to the one used in Douglas on the sewer contract.

General Agent Here. Richard Warren, general agent for the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, was in Douglas this morning. He made arrangements for special trains and special rates for the aviation meet in Bisbee. He states that the business of the road is just at present considerably augmented by the transportation of troops.

Go to Humboldt. Sam Garrett, formerly master mechanic on the T. C. M. at Tombstone was in Douglas today, stopping on his way to the Humboldt smelter, where he will be master mechanic.

Returns From Globe. Mrs. Robert MacKay has returned from Globe, where she went three weeks ago to be at the bedside of her sister, Miss Emma Lange, who was dangerously ill, but is now recovering.

Is Not Discouraged. Postmaster Harry Locke came down from Courtland yesterday and spent last night in Douglas. Speaking of conditions at the camp he said that he considered them better from recent developments of which he knew, and that he expected to see the town looking up again in the near future.

Planting Hedge Fence. W. H. Hatcher, nurseryman and florist, has been commissioned by the local school board to plant a hedge around the high school block on Twelfth street. Mr. Hatcher, for this purpose, has ordered one thousand California prever hedge plants. Last year Mr. Hatcher planted thirteen hundred of these plants around this lot, but nearly all died from lack of proper attention after they had been planted.

Report Rothwell Dead. D. C. Hooper, exalted ruler of the Elks, today received a letter from San Francisco which stated that E. B. Rothwell had died of smallpox at Nicasio. The letter was written by a friend of Mr. Rothwell, who stated that he wrote at the request of Mrs. Rothwell, who was prostrated by the shock of the news she had received. No word of his death had been received in this city and Mr. Hooper at once wrote to Nicasio for information. Mr. Rothwell was a member of the local lodge of Elks.

T. B. Snyder is in the city from Alamogordo.

County Ranger Hicks is in the city today.

J. H. L. Forbes came up from El Tigre yesterday.

Superior Bowen was a visitor from Bisbee yesterday.

Judge Fletcher M. Dean came down from Tombstone last evening.

Mrs. S. P. Applewhite is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. J. W. Evans.

Clerk H. E. Berner of the board of supervisors was a visitor in Douglas last night.

H. C. Beuchamp, manager of the Transvaal Mining company of Camp, arrived from the East last night, after a vacation of several weeks. He was met here by J. S. Hunter, who has been in charge of the property during the absence of Mr. Beuchamp.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Feb. 11.—Alfred Marquis of Yuma, aged 26, was arrested today by Chief Back of Imperial county, charged with the murder of James Spann, who was killed near Glamis and his body buried in a sand dune. Spann was identified by a letter from his mother in Alabama. The body was uncovered by hunters coyotes. Spann was killed by a blow on the head with a prospector's pick. Wesley and Tea.

In his younger days John Wesley found it difficult to stop drinking tea. He wrote in 1740: "We agreed it would prevent great expense, as well of health as of time and of money. If the poorer people of our society could be persuaded to leave off drinking of tea, we remedied ourselves to begin and set the example. I expect some difficulty in breaking off a custom of six and twenty years' standing, and accordingly the first three days my head ached and I was half asleep from morning to night. The third day my memory failed almost entirely. On Thursday my headache was gone, my memory as strong as ever, and I have found no inconvenience, but a sensible benefit in several respects from that day to this." Later in life Wesley returned to the use of tea, as his big teapot preserved in his house in London shows. Chicago News.

Once a Sailor Always a Sailor. Charitable institutions often find it hard to learn the occupations of those admitted. A man who has followed several trades when asked his occupation names the one he regards as most dignified, even if he has not followed it for years. The Survey tells of a case that happened in the Cook County infirmary. The man "at the age of nineteen was a sailor for one year. His career as a sailor ended with an accident on the ship by which he lost a leg. For the next thirty-six years he took various jobs as caretaker and the like, such as a crippled person can obtain. Yet when after thirty-six years of independence he was finally forced to take refuge in a poorhouse he puts himself down on the entrance card as a sailor, and one feels in that word the pride of a Norse son of the sea."
